

Overview:

Official Form 106G, Schedule G: Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, replaces Official Form 6G, Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases, in cases of individual debtors.

New Form Elements:

The form is simplified. Instead of requiring the debtor to make multiple assertions about each potential executory contract or unexpired lease, the form simply requires the debtor to identify the name and address of the other party to the contract or lease and to state what the contract or lease deals with. Definitions and examples of executory contracts and unexpired leases are included in the separate instructions for the form.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, copy the additional page, fill it out, number the entries, and attach it to this page. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

- Do you have any executory contracts or unexpired leases?
 No. Check this box and file this form with the court with your other schedules. You have nothing else to report on this form.
 Yes. Fill in all of the information below even if the contracts or leases are listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B).
- List separately each person or company with whom you have the contract or lease. Then state what each contract or lease is for (for example, rent, vehicle lease, cell phone). See the instructions for this form in the instruction booklet for more examples of executory contracts and unexpired leases.

NEW – Debtors are instructed to include contracts and leases listed on Schedule A/B.

REVISED – There is now a place to list the address of any person or company with whom the debtor has a contract or lease

REVISED - The revised schedule simply calls for purpose of contract or lease. It does not ask for the debtor's interest in the contract or lease, any government numbers, or an explanation that the lease isn't for non-residential property.
